

Dr. Jean Yarbrough

Professor of Government and Legal Studies, Bowdoin College, speaking on:

What's Going On in Our Schools & Why Should Parents Be Worried?

The Cumberland County Republican Committee invites you to join us for a Lawn and Garden Party!

Saturday, June 25, 1:00-3:00 p.m., at the home of Don and Nancy Vose, 34 Brook Hollow Rd, Naples, ME

Jean Yarbrough, Bowdoin's Gary M. Pendency Sr. Professor of Social Sciences, has been awarded the Claremont Institute's Henry Salvatori Prize, presented each year to an individual "who has distinguished himself or herself by an understanding of, and actions taken to, preserve and foster the principles upon which the United States was built."

She is the author of American Virtues: Thomas Jefferson on the Character of a Free People (Kansas, 1998), has edited The Essential Jefferson (Hackett, 2006) and, her most recent book, Theodore Roosevelt and the American Political Tradition (University Press of Kansas, 2012), won the Richard E. Neustadt Award in 2013.

Sponsors Include:

 AFFORDABLE EVENTS
Maine's Premier Wedding & Special Event Rental Source
<http://maineweddingtents.com/>

RSVP / Tickets: $75
ccrcme.com/yarbrough

Garden salad, assorted sandwiches, dessert and beverages will be served along with spectacular views of The Lakes Region from the beautiful gardens. For info, contact Karen Lockwood at karenlockwood@gmail.com, (207) 751-1667.